This MyLearning User Training Guide covers the following:

- Logging In
- Finding your assigned training
- Reviewing your completion history
- Viewing and searching the course catalogue
- Registering for a course
- Viewing the calendar

For any MyLearning questions or concerns, please contact mylearning@mackenziehealth.ca.

Logging In

For new hires logging in for the first time (inside the hospital)

1. Log in to the computer using your Initial Computer Login which was emailed to you by your Talent & Benefits Associate (TBA)
   - User Name: typically your first initial and last name (e.g. jsmith)
   - Password: temporary password provided in the email
2. Once you have re-set your password, please proceed to the For Existing Staff section below

For new hires logging in for the first time (outside of the hospital)

3. If you have not yet logged into a Mackenzie Health computer or onto the network, you must reset your password before accessing MyLearning. To reset your password:
4. Go to RD Web Access (mackenziehealth.ca)
5. Log in using your Initial Computer Login username and password that were emailed to you
6. Once you have re-set your password, please proceed to the next step For Existing Staff

For existing staff

1. Go to https://mylearning.mackenziehealth.ca/
2. If you are not automatically logged into MyLearning, please log in with the following:
   - Username: firstname.lastname@mackenziehealth.ca (e.g. john.smith@mackenziehealth.ca)
   - Password: use your hospital network password
Important note

- If you are using a shared computer workstation, please remember to log out (or tap out) of the computer once you’re done using it. This is so that others don’t use your MyLearning account by accident.
